THANKSGIVING

It's a great pleasure and happy feelings to work in the presence and grace of our All Might Be God; so, the first sincerely great thanksgiving goes to our Creator, the Lord and King of kings and His Elects.

How could life be without a presence of family, relatives, friends and colleagues? It's one of a part for the life to be great, of happiness, helpful, successful and attractive one, but also to make the world a better dwelling island.

So, the other thanksgiving goes to my Parents, Mr. & Mrs. John Christopher Robin (Mzungupori); You have been such the best Parents of the kind to me ever, with great care of the kind, with unique love and heart, that has led to see the best in me and in others as well; so, I am very proud of you.

Sincerely thanks to the family, relatives, friends and colleagues, for love, care, unity and help, to bring together the beauty of this life and being the great helping support in this journey of life.

Special thanks to JJR Company Limited.

Great thanks to the Government, for the conducive environments and great infrastructures for us.

Other thanksgiving goes to the various Mentors / Motivators and Preachers: TD Jakes, L Brown, E Thomas, Dr. Munroe, T Shelton, Osteen, Denzel W, S Hervey, J Allen, Dr. R Anthony, Oprah, L Nichols, Rhonda, Dr. Cindy, Rev. B Kussimula (D.C.T Anglican) etc, to whom I've got a lot, while some have been among what is inside.

The power of opposition is what brings balance in motion. So, the other thanksgiving goes also to those who brought challenges and opposition, through them is where the opinions, motivation and power have been made, so, because of it, it has been made possible, led into not giving up and moving on forward.

INTRODUCTION

“Life is short, but contains long journey in it.”

“Life and the Philosophies of the Journey,” is a book telling about the life journey, various challenges, education, knowledge, skills, experience, motivations and the new positive perspectives of life in facing stuffs and moving forward in this life arena for the positive outcomes in this physical and spiritual world.

As it is, life is short for the time we have to be alive in this world compare to the amount of stuffs we are supposed to accomplish on time. Many use to say, “Time is not enough,” for those who have the hope of life; implies that, there is a lot of stuffs while time is very limited, and on the other side, we keep on decaying more and more.

But also, together with this shortness of time, but when you come to how hard some of the stuffs are, together with challenges and troubles that some of the people are experiencing, this lead for some of them to see this journey as a very endless troubled journey, that reach a point, some feel like time is not moving, Universe has stopped and inclined on them, for those whose hope has gone.

This book has touched various aspects of such journey, such as how human travel in such journey, from their journey of birth into this world, their childhood, their raising, their youth, until their eldest age and decaying, also various challenges of life faced by human, spiritual faith, economics, entrepreneurship, administrative authority, ethics, parenting guardianship, growth, relationship, philosophies, knowledge, skills, answers, motivation and the way how humans tackle their environments and the societies at all.

They are words of teachings, knowledge, wisdom, skills, various philosophies, motivation, inspiration, hope, and to bring revelation, new image and focus of life, to face our environments, standing up again much stronger and moving on forward.
